Special Notes:

Football Camp II: 6th-9th grade: Get ready to get better! This intense, non-padded football camp is a training ground for future Vipers. We will cover all aspects of all positions throughout the week. All defense, offense and special teams will be worked. This championship camp is staffed with coaches from the winning Vandegrift Viper High School Football staff and they will take your athlete to the next level. This camp is also held at a very important time in his conditioning, as it is strategically placed right before school starts to assist in preparing your athlete for success in the fall. In addition to physical training, each camp night will have several character development sessions and vital X&O's time to make sure your athlete is prepared on all fronts. Make sure and bring water and wear active clothing and football cleats Register today and don't miss out!
